An advertisement for a LEGO compatibility checker. The background is a bright yellow surface. A rolled-up white instruction manual is unrolled, showing a blue page with the number '16' and a diagram of a LEGO house. A LEGO minifigure is placed on the manual. To the right, a smartphone displays a digital version of the same assembly step, with a green LEGO minifigure on the screen. Another smartphone is partially visible to the right. Small orange LEGO pieces are scattered on the yellow surface.
